Two Eagles Lodge Receives TripAdvisor Award

Union Bay, BC—Two Eagles Lodge, a B&B and vacation rental designed and built by Carolyn and Steve Touhey in Union Bay, were just notified by TripAdvisor that they are being recognized with a TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence.

Christine Petersen, president of TripAdvisor for Business, says, "The accolade gives exceptional businesses in a variety of different industries around the world the recognition they deserve. From top-rated restaurants in Boston to top-rated attractions in Barcelona, we want to applaud these businesses for offering TripAdvisor travelers a great customer experience."

The Certificate of Excellence program does not replace the TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Awards, but will be an extension of TripAdvisor's recognition of top-rated businesses, as reviewed by travelers on the world's largest travel site (www.TripAdvisor.com).

Two Eagles Lodge, built in 2007, is the recipient of the 2010 and 2011 Vancouver Island Better Business Bureau Torch Awards for the hospitality/tourism industry. Two Eagles was also named as the "2011 Tourism/Hospitality Business of the Year" as recipient of the Vancouver Island Business Excellence Award. The Comox Valley Home-Based Business Association named the Touheys as "2011 Comox Valley Ambassadors of the Year" in May.
